Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, MAY 22, to Saturday, MAY 29, 1736.

LONDON, March 4.

LETTERS from Conſtantinople of the 11th of January mention, that the Janiſſaries were on the Point of having excited a dangerous Revolt in that Capital; but that the Plot having been diſcovered in Time, their Deſigns were prevented, and the Affair was healed up, without Blood ſhed, in order to give the People an Opinion of the mild Temper of the new Vizier. Fifty Thouſand Turks are filing off to face the Ruſſians before Aſoph; and the Cham of Tartary, with all his Troops, is in March likewiſe to do the ſame.

This Day at Noon a General Council was held at St. James's, when the Right Hon. the Lord de la War received his Commiſſion from his Majeſty appointing him Ambaſſador to his moſt Serene Highneſs the Duke of Saxe Gotha, to demand the Princeſs Auguſta, his Siſter, in Marriage for his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and early to morrow Morning his Lordſhip will embark on board one of his Majeſty's Yatchts at Graveſend in order to ſail for Oſtend, and from thence proceed by Land to the Court of Saxe-Gotha, which is eight Days Journey.

Four other of his Majeſty's Yatchts are ordered to be victualled, &c. and with a Convoy of four Men of War to ſail for Oſtend againſt the 30th Inſtant, there to receive the ſaid Princeſs and her Retinue on board, and bring them to England.

They write from Naples that Don Carlos has had a very ſignal Eſcape from being drown'd as he was croſſing a River in his Chaiſe: The Rains having raiſed the Waters to an unexpected Height, the Poſtillion found himſelf out of his Depth before he was aware, and the Horſe he rode on, having entangled himſelf in his Harneſs was immediately drown'd: The Fellow had the Readineſs of Thought to cut his Traces, ſo that he was rolled away by the Stream, and taking the Rain of the other Horſe in his Mouth, ſwam before him, and brought the Prince ſafe to Shore; the Chaiſe being very heavy, did not ſwim, otherwiſe it would, in all Probability, have overturned: His Royal Highneſs, who determined to keep his Seat at all Adventures, was up to the Chin in Water, and being convey'd to the next Houſe was let Blood, and put into a warm Bed. His Royal Highneſs, who acknowledges to owe his Life to the Conduct of the Poſtillion, has ordered him a Gratuity of 40 Piſtoles, and ſettled a Penſion on him of 20 Ducats a Month.

March 6. They write from Stourminſter-Newton near Blandford in Dorſetſhire, that the Wife of one Benjamin Ridout, of that Place, was brought to Bed on Friday the 28th of February laſt, of two Girls growing together, their Bodies ſeemed as one, yet had two Navels, two Anus's, &c. the two Heads diſtinct from one another, having in each two Eyes, two Ears, a Noſe, Mouth, and Hair Lip the four Arms and Legs are likewiſe diſtinct: The Woman had gone 24 Weeks with Child. The Father of this unhappy Birth is alſo very remarkable, having had no Teeth till he was 18 Years of Age, at which time a complete Set came, and remain at preſent.

The French King's Secretary at War has actually declared to the Officers who made the laſt Campaign, that they had nothing to do but to diſpoſe of their Equipages as faſt as they could, for that the preſent Peace was built on ſuch Foundation, as would leave them no room for any further Uſe as long as they lived.

'Tis ſtill ſaid, that the Plenipotentiaries of the ſeveral Powers who were concerned in the late War, or have been invited to take Part in the preſent Pacification will meet at the Hague in a ſort of Congreſs, to ſign the general Treaty of Peace.

Their Majeſties have received Advice, that her Royal Highneſs the the Princeſs Royal, and her Conſort the Prince of Orange, were to were in good Health at Leuwarden in Friezland, but that they were to remove as this Week to Groninguen, of which the Prince is likewise Stadtholder. Their Royal and Serene Highneſſes are to make a Publick Entry into Groninguen, the Nobility and Citizens of which Place are making vaſt Preparations to receive them with the utmoſt Magnificence.

CHARLESTOWN, May 29.

On Friday the 14th Inſtant Mr. William Moore being with ſome other Gentlemen hunting, one of them firing at the Deer, miſs'd it and ſhot him through the Body, whereof he ſoon died. And Laſt Saturday Morning between 9 and 10, Mr. Charles Lowndes, (who, being parted from his Wife, was put in Priſon by Order of the Governour and Council, for not being willing to allow her a Maintenance) ſhot himſelf through the Head, and inſtantly died. He left upon the Table ſeveral Writings, the firſt was dated Nov 5, 1735 and directed to Arthur Middleton, Ralph Izard, Coll. Blake and Nath: Broughton, Eſqrs. wherein he gives a full Account of the Misfortunes he met with ſince his Arrival in this Province by Law-ſuits and otherwiſe, recommends to them the Care of his four Children, and pretends to juſtify the Crime of ſelf-murder he then premeditated. All this is contained in 4 Sheets, and it appears by the Concluſion, that he was then juſt ready to put his Deſign in Execution, but being hindred at that Time, he wrote another Sheet and annexed it without Date. The ſecond was a Letter to the Hon. John Colleton Eſq; dated March 7, 1735 6. much to the ſame Purpoſe with the former, wherein he exclaims againſt ſeveral Perſons, who, he thinks, by their unjuſt Proceedings againſt him, are the Cauſe of this violent Deſign of laying Hands on himſelf: In this Letter he ſays, that he was long Time before prepared to make an End of his unhappy Life, having his Piſtols cock'd ready by his Side, but was hindred by the coming of the ſaid John Colleton Eſq, to his Houſe, but that now he was fully determin'd to clear himſelf or die, by cutting an Arterie or ſhooting himſelf through the Head, &c. and that he was very much tempted to kill all his Children, in order to be buried all in one Grave.

He was put in Priſon after this Time, where he wrote another long Memorial of 12 Sheets, which I have not yet ſeen, but am inform'd it contains very odious Reflections upon ſeveral Perſons, which having been wrote by a deſperate Man, ought rather to be ſuppreſſed than publiſhed. After having finiſhed this Memorial, he ſent a Letter to invite John Colleton Eſq; to come to his Funeral, and after having ſhav'd and dreſs'd himſelf, he laid down on the Ground, with a loaden Piſtol in each Hand, he put one cloſe to his Temple and blew out his Brains, which were found at a little Diſtance all in one heap, his Scull being ſplit in two
